

JSOM Student of the Year Award

The JSOM Student of the Year Award is given to a student who demonstrates exceptional academic performance, leadership, community involvement, and a commitment to the core values of the Jindal School of Management. This award recognizes an all-rounded student who excels in both academics and extracurricular activities, showcasing their dedication to making a positive impact.

Award Criteria

This award is presented to a current UNDERGRADUATE, GRADUATE and PhD student who is considered an all-around excellent example of excellence in JSOM. They are excellent students, confident leaders and actively engaged in the life of the school.

Interview Questions and Notes

Interview Questions:

1. What academic achievements are you most proud of?
2. How have you contributed to student organizations or activities at JSOM?
3. Can you share a specific example of a leadership role you have taken on?
4. What community service or outreach activities have you been involved in?

Interview Notes:

- Academic Achievements: Maintains a 3.7 GPA, managed to earn a TA position. Has the potential to be in Dean's Honor List.
- Student Involvement: Member in the Finance Club; member of the Indian Student Organization.
- Leadership Example: Organized and led a JSOM career fair preparation workshop, helping over 100 students to improve their resumes and interview skills.
- Community Service: Volunteered at local youth centers, tutoring high school students in Math and English.

Nomination Letter

Mohammed Rabib

[B.S Undergraduate]

[11/06/2024]

To the JSOM Student of the Year Award Committee,

It is with great enthusiasm that I nominate Thejeshwar Reddy for the JSOM Student of the Year Award. Thejeshwar Reddy exemplifies the qualities celebrated by this award through their impressive academic record, impactful leadership, and excellent commitment to service.

Academically, Thejeshwar has consistently demonstrated excellence, maintained a 3.7 GPA, earned a Teaching Assistant position and has the ability to secure a place on the Dean's Honor List. Their dedication to academic achievement is matched only by their active engagement in JSOM's community. As a member of the Finance Club, Thejeshwar played a crucial role in organizing workshops, and networking events that benefited not just club members, but the wider student body.

One of Thejeshwar's most notable contributions was leading a career fair preparation workshop. He provided valuable resources on resume building, interview strategies, and professional etiquette. Thejeshwar's personally led interactive sessions and coached peers on how to present themselves confidently, showcasing their leadership and dedication to helping others succeed.

Beyond his involvement in JSOM, Thejeshwar is deeply committed to community service. He volunteered at local youth centers, where he tutored high school students in math and english, helping to connect educational gaps and inspire younger generations to pursue higher education.

For these reasons and more, I am honored to recommend Thejeshwar Reddy for the JSOM Student of the Year Award. His academic achievements, leadership skills, and commitment to service makes him an ideal candidate for this recognition.

Thank you for considering this nomination.

Sincerely,
Mohammed Rabib